NORFOLK CASES POSTPONED

TRIAL OF CASES AGAINST RACING MEN DEFERRED UNTIL COMING SATURDAY.

Prosecuting Attorney Fails to Put in An Appearance at Hour Scheduled for Beginning of Trials—Business Goes on as Usual at the Track.

Norfolk, Va., April 13.—The Commonwealth's Attorney failed to appear at the Tanner's Creek court-house tonight at the hour set for trial of the cases arising out of the indictments returned by the grand jury against Manager Bob Levy and various layers of odds at the Jamestown Jockey Club's track. Consequently the trials were postponed until Saturday next. Business progressed in the usual fashion at the course this afternoon, fifteen layers cutting in. The list of those under indictment includes J. E. Price, owner of the race track; Bob Levy, the lessee, and eight alleged layers, F. Miller, W. Hickey, Rod McMahon, W. Heck, J. Valentine, J. Rose, K. Sheehan and J. Hale.

The fifteen layers that did business at the Jamestown Jockey Club's course this afternoon recouped some of the losses that they had sustained during the early days of the meeting, when favorites and well-backed horses were sweeping the card. Tactics, one of the two-year-olds that August Belmont is racing here, was the only favorite that made good during the afternoon. Tactics beat an ordinary lot in the first race, a dash of four and a half furlongs, for which he was an even-money favorite. Dugan gave Tactics a splendid ride and also was of great help to Golden Castle, which beat High Range a nose in the closing strides of the sixth race.

For the first time since the meeting opened, the track was really fast. The improvement in the going was attended by a corresponding improvement in the sport and the finishes were much closer than during the past few days, when a majority of the winners had wide margins to spare. Virginia and Maryland turfmen fared well. Racewell, Golden Castle, Bendaga and Creston winning for them. The steeplechase found Octopus an easy winner. He was the "good thing" of the race, being backed from 12 to 1 to 6 to 1. Xebec, the favorite, was bothered by Croynod and Hawkwing, which galloped around the course riderless.

Creston showed a good performance in the fourth race, which he won in runaway fashion. He was heavily backed, but his margin over Academist at the end was a matter of an inch or two. Troxler's strong finish was largely responsible for Creston's victory.

Frank Nolan, proprietor of the Beverwyck Stable, arrived today from the south. He was at the course early this morning inspecting the big string that trainer Dave Woodford brought up from Jacksonville. The horses of the Beverwyck Stable will be shipped from here to Pinicola and then to Canada, after which they will go to Saratoga if a meeting should be held there.

Jack Atkin arrived today and probably will join the ranks of the layers doing business here. J. W. Garth sold Kaufman this afternoon to Martin Foley for $500.

BIG SHIPMENT TO SALT LAKE TRACK.

San Francisco, Cal., April 13.—One carload of horses has been shipped from Oakland to British Columbia, where forty-two days' racing will be held at Victoria and Vancouver. Phil Reilly is here in the interest of the northern meeting, and expects to secure at least 125 horses. The British Columbia associations have set aside $10,000 for the transportation of horses to their tracks. The new racing association that is building a track near Spokane, across the line in Idaho, wires that it will work in conjunction with the Vancouver and Victoria meetings.

A special train of twenty-two cars of horses will be shipped from here for Salt Lake City April 18, according to present plans. A consignment owned by Barney Schreiber will continue through to Denver.

The stable of A. B. Spreckels will be shipped to Louisville, Ky., Saturday.

REINSTATE JOCKEYS, SUSPEND OWNERS.

Pensacola, Fla., April 13.—Reports from outside sources that heavy commissions had been placed on Tallow Dip and Duncragan caused both to be held at almost prohibitive odds. This was done with a view to discouraging outside betting. Both horses won in commanding fashion and were clearly best in their respective fields.

The judges today concluded their investigation of the Sweet Owen race of last Friday and announced the barring of further entries of any horses owned by A. Wilson and B. Pierce. Jockeys Lloyd, Wispen, Irvin, C. White and Pryor were reinstated. No definite decision has been reached as to the closing date of this meeting, but is almost certain that it will terminate with the ending of the fifteen-day period for which it was originally scheduled.

PLANNING FOUR MILE RACE DETAILS.

Lexington, Ky., April 13.—Rain fell in torrents this morning, leaving the Kentucky Association course excessively sloppy and seriously retarding the work of the horses.

Secretary Bidwell of the Kentucky State Racing Commission has accepted the secretaryship for the proposed four-mile race. The date for the closing of entries will be fixed at the next meeting of the commission. The Endurance Gold Cup has been suggested as a name for the stakes and it has been proposed to add a gold cup to cost $500.

NOW UP TO THE GOVERNOR.

Denver, Colo., April 13.—The house yesterday passed the Cornforth bill, legalizing boxing contests limited to ten rounds without a decision and permitting incorporated fair and agricultural associations to permit the sale of pari-mutuel pools in connection with race meetings. The bill is now ready for Governor Shafroth's signature. Opponents of the measure will try to induce the governor to veto the measure. The governor also has in his possession a companion bill passed by the legislature providing for a state racing commission.

STILL HOPEFUL OF NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, La., April 13.—The Crescent City Jockey Club directors, in the belief that there is still a chance for the restoration of racing in New Orleans under the pari-mutuel system, decided at its annual meeting last evening to renew their lease of the Fair Grounds. No official statement was given out as to the action taken, but one of the directors said that they believed that racing, with the bookmakers eliminated, would be restored. The club has been paying a rental of $10,000 per year on the Fair Grounds property.

WORKING OF RACERS GOES ON.

Heavy Track Conditions Fail to Interfere with Training Operations at Churchill Downs.

Louisville, Ky., April 13.—Heavy rains deluged Douglas Park and Churchill Downs, but scores of racers took their exercise today, although fast trials were impossible. Round the World, the Derby favorite, worked a mile at a two-minute gait. Captain Carnody was walked and trotted for two miles, then cantered slowly around the course. Of the older horses, Harrigan and Angelus worked five furlongs in 1:07; J. C. Cahn's Mockler went a half in 56; Sebago, owned by Pat Dunne, went a quarter in 27; and Henry McDaniel let Polls canter three-eighths in 41. At least 100 two-year-olds worked on both tracks, eight in about fifteen seconds making their exercise.

The racing stable of W. A. Buck has arrived at Douglas Park in charge of trainer William Freeman. He has Del Cruzador, Solus, Harlem Maid and Kopek. Mr. Buck is himself at Los Angeles. Kopek was a frequent winner in Mexico. Harlem Maid was formerly owned by Green B. Morris. She was one of the fastest fillies racing on the inter-mountain circuit last year.

Judge Charles F. Price has arrived from Magnolia Springs, Ala., to await the opening of the Churchill Downs meeting on May 13, during which he is to serve as presiding judge. John Hachmeister, who left Magnolia Springs simultaneously with Judge Price, is now in New Orleans and will be here the last of this month. Col. M. J. Winn is en route here from British Vancouver. He will come home by way of St. Paul and Chicago and will be here about April 20 to take up his duties as general manager of the spring meeting.

William Keagan, track superintendent of Churchill Downs, will arrive tomorrow from Covington.

E. R. Bradley has notified Acting Secretary Edward Jasper that he will ship nineteen horses here. W. V. Casey, owner of Mamie Algol, has made application for five stalls. Edward Corrigan will come from Pensacola with ten horses. T. C. McDowell and Martin Doyle, now at Lexington, will bring their complete stables here. Mr. McDowell's King's Daughter always races well at the Downs.

J. L. Ross is coming from Norfolk with four horses and C. J. Ryan with one.

Among the horses W. C. Weant brought from Juarez is the local favorite, Otlo.

It is probable that the racing string of Powell & Parker will be shipped here, now that the meeting at Albuquerque, N. M., has been declared off.

Among the horses raced by this combination are Executive, Fred Mulholland and Napa Nick.

It is believed that close to 1,500 horses will be here when racing begins at Churchill Downs May 13. Acting Secretary Edward Jasper has received word from Capt. E. B. Cassatt, the Pennsylvania millionaire, that he will ship his stable of eighteen horses from Chesterbrook Farm, near Berwyn, Pa., to Churchill Downs on April 25, and on the same date trainer W. H. Karrik will leave Sheephead Bay for the Downs with the horses embracing the strings of J. E. Widener, F. R. Hitchcock and the Oneck Stable of H. K. Knapp.

MILTON YOUNG'S RACING STRING.

Lexington, Ky., April 13.—For the first time in several years Col. Milton Young, vice-chairman of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, and one of the veterans of the running turf, will campaign a string of thoroughbred racers this season. Colonel Young's return to the turf will be hailed with satisfaction by the older class of horsemen, who remember the blue and white of the Young stable when Bookjack, Ascender, Fleetman, Bankrupt, Lamplighter and a host of other best thoroughbreds bore them to victory.

Colonel Young's stable of fifteen horses will be trained and raced in the name of W. L. Lewis, one of the best-known trainers in the blue grass region, and who in the past has successfully trained for William Gest, George Holte, J. N. Camden and other well-known owners. Mr. Lewis developed Colloquy, Hambridge, Polly Prim and other good winners, and two years ago trained Crystal Maid, one of the fleetest two-year-old fillies in the west.

Both Mr. Lewis and Colonel Young think highly of the latter's two-year-olds, which have been in training at the track of the Kentucky Association here since early in the year. Three of them are said to have worked especially well.

One of the most highly prized youngsters is Toddlings, a brown colt by Toddington—Countess Pepper. Toddlings was purchased last October, and is yearling at the sales here last October. Another is Curtin Call, a brown colt by Plaudit—Follow. The latter is a well-up youngster for which Colonel Young paid E. T. Graves $1,550 last fall after the colt had worked a sensational three-eighths at the local track. Others in the string were bred by Colonel Young, and they trace their ancestry back to the fleetest sires and dams that ever bore the azure and white of the Young establishment. Their names follow:

Clubs, ch. c. by Royal Flush III.—Melton Mowbray.

Curtin Call, b. c. by Plaudit—Follow.

Forty Nine, b. c. by Mars—Sant—California.

Gay Bird, br. c. by Oiseau—Belle of the Day.

Incliter, ch. c. by Cesarion—Incendary.

Syringa, br. f. by Cesarion—Lorelei.

Toddlings, b. c. by Toddington—Countess Pepper.

Viley, br. c. by Maria Santa—Maid of Fortune.

York Lad, br. c. by Yorkshire Lad—Addie.

Zarion, b. c. by Cesarion—Carrie Jones.

In addition to these youngsters Colonel Young has a quartet of three-year-olds, of which he expects a great deal this spring. They will be raced here by Mr. Lewis and then will be taken to Louisville and Latonia, and later on in the summer to Canada. They are Mr. Ham, a son of Requital; Lone Ben, by Ben Strome; French King, whose sire is the distinguished Ethelbert, and Lavinia, a fine-looking daughter of Sir Dixon.

A few years back when Colonel Young was the owner of the famous McGrathiana Stock Farm, where the great Hanover and other kings of the thoroughbred world roamed the blue grass pastures, he was the largest breeder and one of the leading owners in the racing sphere. At one time there were more than 600 mares at McGrathiana, all owned by Colonel Young. Today his thoroughbred holdings number only about sixty mares, twenty-five yearlings, the stallions Mexican and Leonidas and the horses he intends racing this year.

BELMONT TO RACE AT MONTREAL.

New York, April 13.—August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, will nominate his best horses for the stakes to be decided over the Blue Bonnets course at Montreal. Trainer John Whalen, now at Norfolk, and trainer Louis Feustel, who is handling the Belmont Park division, have forwarded a list of horses that in their opinion will be ready and suited by the conditions of the several stakes.

MR. BELMONT WINS IN ENGLAND.

London, Eng., April 13.—At the Leicester Spring Meeting today the Workshop Maiden Plate of 102 sovereigns for all ages, at five furlongs, was won by August Belmont's three-year-old chestnut colt, Sand of the Orient, by Rock Sand—Orienta, with W. L. Sparkman's three-year-old chestnut colt, Henry Potts, second, and Mr. Cranford's three-year-old brown colt, Polynece, third. Ten horses started.

JAMESTOWN FORM CHART.

NORFOLK, VA., THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1911.—Bright day. Jamestown Jockey Club. Spring Meeting of 19 days. (15 books on.) Weather clear.

Presiding Judge, Edward Cole. Starter, Mars Cassidy. Racing Secretary, F. W. Gerhardy.

Racing starts at 2:30 p. m. (Chicago time 1:30 p. m.). W indicates whip, S spurs, B blinkers. Figures in parentheses following the distance of each race indicate index number, track record, age of horse and weight carried. *Indicates apprentice allowance.

95378 FIRST RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. (85092—55—2—103.) $250 added. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Net value to winner $220; second, $40; third, $20.

Winner—B. g. by Hastings—Merry Token (trained by J. Whalen). Went to post at 2:34. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. TACTICS went to the front at once and easily won all the way. KITTERY, always in nearest pursuit, moved up gamely on the stretch turn, but was unable to keep pace with the winner. BAIT came again and out-stayed THIRTY FORTY for third place. The latter showed speed and tired as if short. NORMA GIRL went well for a quarter.

Scratched—Vestibule, 106; 95356 Auto Maid, 103.

Winner—Ch. c. by Racine—Miss Wandelaar (trained by J. L. Gladish). Went to post at 2:51. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. RACEWELL ran into an easy lead in the first quarter and held it to the last sixteenth, then tired and finished well. RUBY KNIGHT was taken back on the turn out of the backstretch and finished with a rather rush. NEVA broke well and ran in improved form. RAMPANT finished well. FLUVANNA ran well for a half.

Winner—Ch. g. by Solitaire II.—Wealth (trained by J. L. Gladish). Went to post at 3:12. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. OCTOPUS fenced well and, going into an easy lead after taking the fourth fence, was only cantering at the end. NICK O' TIME wore the third DR. HEARD down and outgamed him in a hard finish. The latter showed much speed until the last quarter, where he tired. XEBEC seemingly lacked speed and ran a bad race that should be thrown out.

Winner—Br. g. by Prince Pepper—Cherrub (trained by J. H. McDonald). Went to post at 3:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. CRESTON ran into an easy lead in the first furlong and was rated along under slight restraint to the stretch turn, but tired in the last furlong and just lasted long enough to outstay ACADEMIST. The latter finished with a rush after being carried wide on the stretch turn and almost got up. VOLTAIRE ran well, but was cut off a couple of times and was on the inside all the way. COONEY K. tired and was under a drive all of the last furlong. PAUL DAVIS can do much better.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Chas. F. Grainger, which Howard Lewis purchased in Kentucky last fall for J. E. Widener, is reported to be a promising jumping prospect.

Judge C. D. Pettigill plans to leave San Francisco in a few days for Los Angeles, and will later take a pleasure trip through the northwest.

Ivan Adolfo Monek is expected at San Francisco to purchase some broodmares and stallions for a breeding establishment in Venezuela, South America.

Lady Amelia's first foal will come to the races this year. It is a chestnut colt by Golden Garter in the stable of R. T. Wilson and has been named Yellow Eyes.

Maxide and Eddie Dale, Clarence Waterhouse's pair of shifty three-year-olds, did not get into condition to start at Juarez after shipment from California and trainer William McKinney may take them east.

Oxford, which raced well in the colors of James McLaughlin, is now standing at the farm of James Madison, at Warrenton, Va. He is being mated extensively with half-bred mares for the purpose of getting hunters.

Quite a number of horses raced unshod at Juarez the past winter, but none of them succeeded in winning. It was because of the peculiar conditions of the course that some owners tried racing their charges without plates.

R. C. Benson, who trained for the Lawndale Stable at Juarez during the past winter, was formerly one of the most noted of western trotting horse drivers. He campaigned the famous gelding Ryland T., 2:07 1/2, and many other harness stars.

George E. Perrin, an eastern horseman, claims to have discovered merit in a food for racers consisting of a sort of hash of cracked corn, finely cut alfalfa, rolled oats and brewers' barley, saturated with molasses that has been subjected to rather a high temperature.

John Clarke, an attache of the Turf and Field Club's house at Belmont Park, was at one time in the employ of Major Eustace Loder in England and in that capacity exercised the noted mare Pretty Polly from the time she was foaled until she was retired to the stud.

Trainers, who ply their vocation on tracks under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Jockey Association, learn this season will be called upon to pay a fee of $50. A jockey's license will cost $20, which is $5 less than last year's fee. Applications should be made prior to May 1.

His Excellency, the Governor-General of Canada, and Countess Grey, who will visit Toronto for the spring meeting at Woodbine, will occupy Benvenuto during their stay. Sir William Mackenzie, having purchased his beautiful house at the head of Dundas road at their disposal, State visits will be made to Woodbine on King's Plate day and also on the closing day.

Eugene Elrod, who has charge of the betting rings on the Kentucky tracks, has been employed at the Churchill Downs race track for a longer period than any other official now connected with the course. Mr. Elrod did his first work at the Downs in 1884, the same season in which Washington Park held its inaugural meeting and Ed Corrigan won the first American Derby with Modesty. Mr. Elrod's service has been continuous since 1884, he never having missed a meeting, spring, summer or fall at the Downs.

Trainer James Rowe, who helped to make James R. Keene's horses famous the world over, remains at New York and his friends say that he will not make up his mind as to future plans until June. Mr. Rowe believes that racing will be revived on the New York tracks this year and prefers to remain here rather than accept an offer to train in England or France. If racing is revived in the east, Mr. Rowe will handle some of H. P. Whitney's horses as well as the few belonging to Mr. Keene that are quartered at the Bay.

A LEADER OF OTHER DAYS.

The racing establishment of Green B. Morris, one of the veterans of the American turf, now consists of but one horse, the selling plater Workbox. Not so many years ago Mr. Morris trained and controlled one of the most pretentious racing stables in the country. His first notable horse was Mintzer, and then, in rapid succession, followed the Kentucky Derby winner, Apollo, Fellow Play, Goldberg, Drake Carter and Bersan. He won the American Derby with Strathmeath, winner of fifty-nine races and $114,958. Then there was Judge Morrow, with which he won the Brooklyn Handicap and thirty-eight other races, representing a total of $77,213. He won forty-nine races and $54,760 with Favor and Soubrera, while Star Ruby, Pupul, Canard, Ada Noy, General Stone, Knight Templar, Rena B. and Tipstaff were all frequent and brilliant winners in his colors. It is reckoned that horses trained and raced by Mr. Morris won nearly a million dollars on the turf, and in the heyday of his prosperity he had a following second to no trainer in the land. Mr. Morris, out of sheer love for the turf, probably will continue to race in a modest way, as long as his health and strength will permit.

GOOD MATERIAL FOR THE PREAKNESS.

Baltimore, Md., April 13.—Many well-known horses have been named for the Preakness Handicap to be run at Pimlico May 17. Among them are S. C. Hildreth's Novelt, Zeus, Kormak and Royal Meteor; August Belmont's Trap Rock, Waterville, Footprint and Whist; E. B. Cassatt's Heather-broom and R. T. Wilson's Cherish and Cuttyhunk. Ananah and Owanux. Others are Babbar, Alice Virginia, Severn, Aetna, Bourbon Beau, The Nigger, Mr. Golightly, Via Octavia, Sandhill, Black Friar, Blackfoot, Footlights, Herbert Turner, Bounder, Reputation, Hatters, Capsize, Dr. Duener, Joe Kenyon, Lahore, Pharaoh, Stinger, Warbler and Planter.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. J. C. Kansas City, Mo. The reply to C. L. B. was a reply to you as well. The bet was a draw, because of the way it was worded.
